

Anthony Wagner
Sales Associate – Commercial Sales & Leasing

Anthony joined the Melaver | Mouchet team in the spring of 2006. He has a solid background in sales and customer service. Most recently, he was an internal Project Manager for the Krispy Kreme Doughnut Corporation in Winston Salem where he managed the installation of business management systems in all new and remodeled restaurants. Prior to that, he was the Project Manager for Radiant Systems in Atlanta where he directed business management system rollouts while interfacing with the client.

He is a graduate of The Georgia Institute of Technology with a Computer Engineering degree. Anthony is an avid boater and also enjoys camping, hunting, fishing, and triathlons.

Continuing Education

Anthony is currently pursuing the Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation conferred by the organization. The CCIM designation is awarded upon completion of a graduate-level curriculum and attainment of a level of qualifying experience. CCIMs are recognized experts in commercial real estate brokerage, leasing, asset management, valuation, and investment analysis, and form a business network encompassing 1,000 markets throughout North America.

Anthony has also obtained the LEED (Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design) 2.2 accreditation. The LEED Green Building Rating System is a voluntary, consensus-based national standard for developing high-performance, sustainable buildings. As a division of Melaver, Inc., the members of Melaver | Mouchet strive to promote sustainable brokerage, development and construction.
